Dear Ms Maguire,

Thank you for your recent letter regarding the South Dublin County Council's nomination to the DCU Governing Authority.

As directed by the Universities Act 1997, the Governing Authority's Nominations Committee met to consider all nominations made from local authorities to fill the current vacancy. The decision of the Nominations Committee on this occasion was to appoint the nomination made by another Council.

I would like to thank the Council for its active engagement with this process and the university would be very pleased to contact you again when a vacancy next arises.

Yours sincerely
