Re: Motion Passed at Meeting of South Dublin County Council

Dear Minister Hogan,

The following Motion was Agreed at the County Council meeting held on 13th February 2012:-

“That this council calls on the Department of Environment, Communities & Local Government and the Local Government Management Agency to reform the payment arrangements for the Non-Principal Private Residence charge such that residents in arrears who wish to pay the full outstanding amount due (including late payment fees) are allowed, subject to local management discretion, to enter an agreed schedule for payment by instalment.”

I should be grateful for your comments at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely,
