Re: Motion Passed at Meeting of South Dublin County Council

Dear Minister Bruton,

The following Motion was Agreed at the County Council meeting held on 13th February 2012:-

“That this council noting the Government’s commitment to supporting Ireland’s cloud computing sector and further noting the recent and planned investment in South Dublin County for the provision of data centres which are a key element in facilitating cloud computing; requests the Minister for Jobs, Enterprise & Innovation and IDA Ireland to prioritise South Dublin County; and in particular Grange Castle International Business Park, for further targeted investment in developing a cloud computing industry and research cluster and centre of excellence.”

I should be grateful for your comments at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely,
