Re: Motion Passed at Meeting of South Dublin County Council

Dear Minister Hogan,

The following Amended Motion was Agreed at the County Council meeting held on 13th February 2012:-

“That this Council expresses its opposition to any further erosion of the role of the Local Authority by the proposed introduction of "Irish Water" as the new agency / body with sole responsibility for water supply and service. This Council further recognises the loss of employment this would cause within the Local Authorities in this state and the local knowledge that would be lost as a result of such a body being established. Democratic accountability would also be lost as part of the inevitable outcome and goal of privatisation being achieved. For the body to become self financing in the medium term as envisaged COULD result in enormous bills for the average Family and business for the consumption and use of Water.”

I should be grateful for your comments at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely,
