Re: Motion Passed at Meeting of South Dublin County Council

Dear Minister Burton,

The following Motion was Agreed at the meeting of South Dublin County Council held on 9th July 2012:

“That this Council calls on the Minister to intervene and provide direction in terms of Community Welfare Officers recent practice of removing payments to parents with partial custody (overnight access) of their children and only providing them with a single person's rent supplement which removes the possibility of those parents rights of overnight access to their children and undermines the Family and the decision by the Courts to grant access in some instances.”

I should be grateful for your comments at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely,

Mary Maguire,
Meetings Administrator,
Corporate Services Department.
