Re: Motion Passed at Meeting of South Dublin County Council

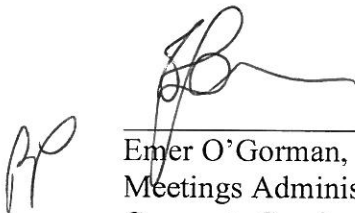

Dear Minister Varadkar,

The following Motion was AGREED at the County Council meeting held on 8th October 2012:-

“That this Council calls on the Minister for Transport, Minister of State for Public Transport and National Transport Authority to commission an independent value-for-money assessment of the potential to reopen the Phoenix Park rail tunnel, to take a limited number of commuter trains from the Kildare Line to the City Centre/Docklands and to link with the Broombridge terminus of the planned Luas BXD line which was recently granted permission by an Bord Pleanála?”

I should be grateful for your comments at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely,

Emer O’Gorman,
Meetings Administrator,
Corporate Services Department.
