Re: Motion Passed at Meeting of South Dublin County Council

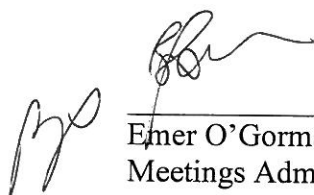

Dear Minister Hogan,

The following Motion was Agreed at the meeting of South Dublin County Council held on 10th December 2012:-

“That this Council requests the Minister for Environment, Local Govt. and Community to make provision for early and/or postal voting so as to facilitate citizens who, for various reasons, are unable to be physically present at their local polling station on polling day, and that this matter be debated.”

I should be grateful for your comments at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely,

Emer O’Gorman,
Meetings Administrator,
Corporate Services Department.
