RE: Tallaght Area Committee Meeting – 29th April 2013

Dear Mr Conlon

I am writing in response to your letter of 15 May 2013.

I am afraid from reading your letter and the motion quoted, it is not very clear to me what you expect me to reply to. I believe auctioneers who are selling or renting a property should be allowed put a sign on that property.

If the Tallaght Area Committee decides to adopt a voluntary code of conduct for estate agents, I am sure if you include estate agents in the decision making, they will abide the code of conduct that is agreed.

With regard to the latter part of your letter referring to the To Let signs in the Tallaght area, if you can give me particular examples, I have absolutely no problem in asking agents to remove them. I am wondering however, if these responsibilities you mention are in relation to the Litter Act? As I am sure you are aware, it is one thing if the sign is on an actual property and another thing if the sign is blowing about like litter. Again I ask you to confirm what exactly you are referring to.

I would be delighted to help the Tallaght Area Committee in any way possible in regard to sign litter and other specific related topics.

Yours sincerely
