Re: Motion Passed at Meeting of South Dublin County Council (M2/1013)

Dear Minister Hogan,

The following Motion under the heading of Mayor's Business was Agreed at the meeting of South Dublin County Council held on 14th October 2013:-

"That this Council expresses its concern regarding the resourcing of the fire service covering South Dublin County, in particular the new requirement for staff at Tallaght Fire Station to tend to fires in part of County Kildare, and calls on Dublin City Council, Kildare County Council and the Department of Environment, Heritage and Local Government to reconsider this requirement in light of concerns expressed by firefighters regarding the overstretching of cover for this area."

I should be grateful for your comments at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely,

Thomas O'Neill,
Meetings Administrator,
Corporate Services Department.

Mr. Owen Keegan,
City Manager,
Dublin City Council,
