Re: Motion Passed at Meeting of South Dublin County Council (M3/0913)

Dear Minister Reilly,

The following Motion was Agreed at the meeting of South Dublin County Council held on 9th September 2013:-

“Recognising that Ireland has the highest rates of Prostate cancer in Europe and amongst the highest in the World, this Council calls on the Minister for Health to introduce a programme of screening for Prostate Cancer, in an effort to reduce the risk factor to men and increasing the prospect of early detection and cure.”

I should be grateful for your comments at your earliest convenience.

Yours sincerely,

---

Thomas O'Neill,
Meetings Administrator,
Corporate Services Department.
