Subject: Anti-Social Behaviour in Lucan area (Ballyowen Area) - From Lucan ACM January 2019

Dear Sirs

At the Lucan Area Committee Meeting (ACM) held on the 29th January 2019 the following motions were passed by the members. As all the motions relate to the same topic, I am including all the motions for your information while identifying which particular motion is for your attention.

Minister for Justice and Law Reform / Garda Commissioner

Our Ref: Item No. 61261

“There has been a visible increase in in anti-social behaviour in parts of the Lucan LEA and in particular around the Ballyowen area. That this Area Committee agrees to write to the relevant Minister and Senior Guards calling for additional resources to combat the problem.”

Andy Lane. Joint Policing Committee

Our Ref: Item No. 61268

“That this Area Committee writes to the Joint Policing Committee reaffirming its support for a Local Policing Forum covering the entire Lucan Area, including Lucan Garda station, especially in the light of increased reports of violent attacks and vandalism in recent months.”

Paul Dolan, Lucan Garda Station / Garda Commissioner

Our Ref: Item No. 61272

“With recent anti-social behaviour taking place in Lucan, that this Area Committee invite a spokesperson from An Garda Siochana in to discuss what we can do collectively to help combat future incidents.”

Any reply will be circulated to the Members and form part of a public document as minutes of the meeting. Your early reply will be greatly appreciated.

Regards,

Barbara Reilly
