RE: Motion agreed at meeting of South Dublin County Council held 11th February 2019

Dear Mr. Murphy,

I refer to your letter of the 8th inst. in relation to the Motion adopted by South Dublin County Council with regard to archaeological excavations at Knocklyon.

The archaeological excavations are being carried out on this site under a licence granted by my Department under the National Monuments Acts and in accordance with the Method Statement approved by the Department as part of the licensing process. The Department's National Monuments Service will receive a full report of the excavation findings in due course.

Yours sincerely,

Terry Allen
Director
National Monuments Service
