Heritage Plan Update

- Review of Heritage Plan

✓ Grant of €12,000 was awarded by the Heritage Council for the Review of the Heritage Plan, under their 2023 programme of support for County Heritage Plan projects.

✓ Following the Internal Consultation Workshop hosted with Epic consultants in December 2022, two External Stakeholder Workshops were hosted in the Tallaght Library on 6th March and 15th March (facilitated by EPIC consultants).

- Review of Heritage Plan

✓ Public Consultation Survey for the Review of the Plan was live on the Council's Consultation Portal between March 10th and April 11th.

✓ 43 submissions received through the on-line consultation survey

✓ Submissions and outputs from both the external consultation workshops and the on-line survey reviewed and assessed in conjunction with EPIC consultants.

- Heritage Plan Process

- ✓ Programme delay in writing Draft - Resources

- ✓ Intention was to present Draft to SPC in September

- ✓ Next Steps
  - ✓ Draft to SPC
  - ✓ Headed Item to Council
  - ✓ Public Consultation on Draft
  - ✓ CE Report on submissions
  - ✓ Revised plan prepared
  - ✓ Presented to full Council

Proposed Format of the Plan

- SECTION 1

- Introduction to the Heritage Plan Review process, highlighting changes in national legislation, policies, obligations etc.

- Brief case examples of 4 achieved projects from the first plan (*i.e. a*rchaeology, natural heritage, built heritage, cultural heritage) that have expanded our knowledge of the County's heritage

Proposed Format of the Plan

- SECTION 2

- Summary of the Plan making process

- Implementation process for the new Plan (Heritage Forum/Plan Governance, a costed Plan, monitoring and evaluation of success and impact

Proposed Format of the Plan

- SECTION 3

- Focus Points/Categories for listed actions

  - Finding and telling the stories
  - Managing heritage data and resources
  - Supporting community engagement and access to heritage
  - Building resilience/adapting to change