Re: Letter of Resignation

FAO: Colm Ward, Chief Executive of South Dublin County Council

A chara,

I wish to formally advise that I am resigning as an elected member of South Dublin County Council. We wish to co-opt my seat at the 13th of November Council meeting and thank you for facilitating this. Stepping back has been a very difficult decision to make but one that I know is in the best interests of my family and I. I wish my new colleague the very best in the role.

I would appreciate if you could extend my thanks and appreciation to the Directors and all of their team members. I genuinely appreciate the positive way in which they have worked with me over the last four and a half years. Our communities are better places as a result of their dedication and hard work.

I would also like to extend my gratitude to you personally. As Director of Housing and Community, sitting with you on the SPC and now as CEO, it has been a pleasure to work with you over the years. I wish you every continued success in your new role as head of SDCC.

Is mise, le meas,

Carly Bailey
